

Summer Reading 2017

Entering First Grade

Reading is a big part of the first grade curriculum. As your summer assignment, to prepare for first grade, you will need to read and log 20 books on this log sheet. Every time you read to someone, or you buddy read (share the reading), write down the title of the story and have the person you read with sign this sheet. There are two required books then some suggested books at the end of the log, but feel free to read any book that challenges you, interests you, or excites you!
